

Using the Gateway to Writing resource

Parental involvement

Practitioner issue: The Reception teacher is delighted at the progress that children in her class are making in writing and is eager to share this with parents in a way that will help them to support their children’s developing skills and confidence at home.

Various documents here to choose from, but for this query would be most likely to choose:

